

Contributors

RENE B. JAVELLANA, S.J. is assistant editor of Philippine Studies. The Ateneo Press has published his book on Casaysayan ng Pasiong Mahal Ni Jesucristong Panginoon Natin, and his second book on Mahal na Passion ni Jesu Christong Panginoon Natin will soon be off the press.

RICARDO TROTA JOSE is a lecturer in the Department of History, University of the Philippines. He is in Japan doing research on the Japanese Occupation of the Philippines and on Philippine military history.

VIOLETA LOPEZ-GONZAGA is research director of the La Salle Bacolod Social Research Center, and the Handumanan Science Foundation. Among her works are The Mangyans of Mindoro and Peasants in the Hills, A Study of Social Change Among the Bukid Swidden Cultivators in the Philippines.

NIELS MULDER is research fellow (Southeast Asian Studies) of the Sociology of Development Research Centre, University of Bielefeld, Germany. His scholarly writings concern the cultural analysis of Javanese, Thai and Tagalog-Filipino societies.

H. ARLO NIMMO is professor of anthropology at California State University at Hayward. Since 1963 he has made a total of four field trips to the Tawi-Tawi Islands to conduct anthropological research among the Bajau of Tawi-Tawi and Sitangkai.

LYDIA YU-JOSE is director of the Japanese Studies Program and professor in the Department of Political Science and History, Ateneo de Manila University. She has her Ph.D. in International Relations from Sophia University.