

philippine studies

Ateneo de Manila University • Loyola Heights, Quezon City • 1108 Philippines

Contributors

Contributors to Volume 50 Number 2 2002

Philippine Studies vol. 50, no. 2 (2002): 299

Copyright © Ateneo de Manila University

Philippine Studies is published by the Ateneo de Manila University. Contents may not be copied or sent via email or other means to multiple sites and posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's written permission. Users may download and print articles for individual, noncommercial use only. However, unless prior permission has been obtained, you may not download an entire issue of a journal, or download multiple copies of articles.

Please contact the publisher for any further use of this work at philstudies@admu.edu.ph.

<http://www.philippinestudies.net>
Fri June 30 13:30:20 2008

Contributors

JOSEPH BURZYNSKI, an officer in the U. S. Army, received his M.A. in Southeast Asian Studies from University of Wisconsin. His research interests include hinterlands studies and political economy in Indonesia and the Philippines.

L. M. GROW teaches at Broward Community College, Davie, Florida. He has published articles on modern philosophical history, eighteenth century British literature, and modern American literature.

RAMON G. GUILLERMO is assistant professor at the Departamento ng Filipino at Panitikan ng Pilipinas at the University of the Philippines at Diliman. He is also the Executive Director of the Amado V. Hernandez Resource Center.

STEVE MACISAAC received his Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Washington. He has taught at the University of California, Irvine, Whittier College and the Institute of International Relations in Ha Noi. He is currently an assistant professor of Political Science at Jacksonville University.

FLORO QUIBUYEN obtained the Ph.D. in Political Science and M.A. in Anthropology from the University of Hawaii at Manoa. His recent book, A Nation Aborted, has been considered as "one of the most provocative books on Philippine historiography" for the 1990s in the Southeast Asian History Series.

GÜNTER SPREITZHOFFER, is lecturer at the Department of Geography and Regional Research, University of Vienna, Austria. His research focuses on aspects of socio-cultural change, tourism, urbanization and global impact within South-east Asia.

ROLANDO B. TOLENTINO is visiting professor at Osaka University of Foreign Studies. He is associate professor at the Film Department of the University of the Philippines.