

Contributors

LESLIE E. BAUZON is a visiting professor of history at the Kyoto University. He is an associate professor of history at the University of the Philippines and holds a Ph. D in history from the Duke University. MA. LOURDES ARELLANO-CARANDANG is an assistant professor at the University of the Philippines Psychology Department connected with the Ateneo de Manila University and the University of the East Neuro-Psychiatry Department. She has an M.A. in clinical psychology from the Ateneo de Manila University and holds a Ph.D. in clinical psychology specializing in child and family relations from the University of California (Davis). GERALD W. HEALY, S.J. is a professor of moral theology and canon law at the Loyola School of Theology and a frequent contributor to Philippine Studies. FLORENTINO H. HORNEDO holds a Ph. D. in literature from the University of Santo Tomas. He is chairman of the Department of Pilipino at the Ateneo de Manila University. PATRICIA B. LICUANAN, author of several scholarly publications on psychology is chairman of the Psychology Department and associate professor of psychology at the Ateneo de Manila. She holds a Ph. D. in psychology from the Pennsylvania State University. JOHN LINSKENS, CICM is a visiting professor at Maryhill School of Theology. He is a professor of New Testament in Mexican American Cultural Center, San Antonio, Texas. TERESITA N. NAVAL received her master's degree in psychology from the Ateneo de Manila University. ALICE ALFARIS PAÑARES teaches art to children and teenagers at the Greenhills Creative Art Center. Pursuing the field of developmental art for children, she conducts creative art seminars for public and private school art teachers and preschool teachers in Manila and the provinces. She is currently completing her master's degree in Art Education at the University of the Philippines. SOLEDAD S. REYES is an assistant professor at the Ateneo de Manila University English Department. She has an M.A. in literature from the Ateneo de Manila and a Ph. D. in Philippine Studies from the University of the Philippines. FREDERICK F. TRAVIS is an assistant professor of history at the Fordham University, New York.