

Contributors

GÉMINO H. ABAD is professor of English at U.P. Diliman and associate for poetry in the U.P. Creative Writing Center. He is chairman of the Philippine Literary Arts Council (PLAC).

REGALADO TROTA JOSE, JR. is a researcher for the Arts at the Ayala Museum in Makati. He is an avid student of colonial Philippine Church art.

FRANCIS C. MADIGAN, S.J., who first came to the Philippines in 1941, has been a faculty member at Xavier University since 1957. He is professor of sociology and director of the Research Institute for Mindanao Culture.

FRANCISCO MALLARI, S.J. obtained his M.A. in Philosophy from Berchmans College and M.A. in History from Loyola University. He is on leave from Xavier University doing research in Spain.

EDNA Z. MANLAPAZ is professor at the Department of English, Ateneo de Manila University. Together with Abad she is currently working on an anthology and literary history of Philippine Poetry in English, 1905-1950.

ELIZABETH MARASIGAN is assistant professor in the English Department, Ateneo de Manila University and a Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics from Columbia Pacific University. She did a research monograph at Singapore University Press entitled Code Switching in Multilingual Societies.

ISAIAS S. SEALZA is author of several articles on upland agriculture in the Philippines. He is an instructor in sociology at Xavier University and a junior research associate of the Research Institute for Mindanao Culture.

MOTOE TERAMI-WADA teaches at the Department of History, De La Salle University. She obtained her M.A. in Asian Studies at the University of the Philippines.