

Contributors

ALMA JILL DIZON was born and raised in Honolulu. She studied in Spain and at U.C. Berkeley before going on to do graduate work in Spanish literature at Yale. She is currently writing her dissertation on the Noli and the Fili.

REGINA GARCIA-GROYON teaches at the University of St. La Salle, where she was awarded the Mariano Ramos Chair for the Humanities and undertook a research study on works of five poets from Negros Occidental.

EVA V. KALAW has an M.A. in Literature, English Department, Ateneo de Manila University. She is language coordinator and is teaching English at the Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Santo Tomas.

ELLEN H. PALANCA is professor at the Economics Department of Ateneo de Manila University.

JORSHINELLE T. SONZA is a U.P. alumna and is now a graduate student at Drew University in the United States.

MARK D. VAN ELLS is archivist and historian at the Wisconsin Veterans Museum in Madison, Wisconsin. He received his B.A. and M.A., and is currently a doctoral candidate at the Department of History, University of Wisconsin.

HEH-SONG WANG is senior vice-president and chief economist of the International Commercial Bank of China (ICBC) in Taipei. He is the editor-in-chief of ICBC's Economic Review.